Brent Cross Cricklewood Transformation Update

Brent Cross Town is full of free activities for the whole family to enjoy this half-term

There is plenty to do to keep the kids entertained with a new programme of events and activities happening in the area from Sunday 21 to Sunday 29 October. Back by popular demand, the team at Brent Cross Town is hosting morning movie screenings at the Visitor Pavilion, while arts and crafts activities and social games will be taking place at Claremont Park.

#TimeTogether back at Brent Cross

For the second time running, we are thrilled to support Brent Cross Town's partnership with Women in Sport for the charity's #TimeTogether campaign. As part of the campaign, Brent Cross Town invites women and girls to join free, fun sporting activities between Saturday 21 and Sunday 29 October. These events are suitable for all ability levels, have female instructors and no equipment is required.

Drop in and see us this evening

We host community drop-in sessions in the Brent Cross Town Visitor Pavilion on the third Thursday of every month. We invite you to talk to us about any questions, concerns or feedback you may have about the development.

This month's drop-in session is today, from 5.30pm to 6.30pm. If you can't attend, the welcome hosts are available everyday from 10am to 6pm (8pm on Thursdays). You can also email us at TransformingBX@barnet.gov.uk

New artwork brightens Claremont Park

A new colourful artwork which is inspired by the history and culture of the local area was unveiled in Claremont Park last week. The new artwork has been named 'Yesterday, Tomorrow' and is designed by artist Steven Wilson.

The artwork is collage of photos representing local heroes like Zadie Smith and Helena Bonham Carter, as well as heritage stories which have been gathered from local residents.

Get your delicious Happy Face Pizza now

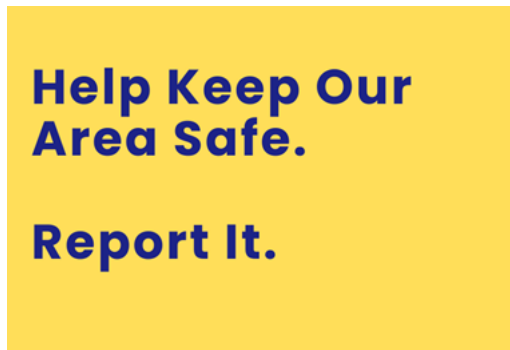

This month we are excited that local pizza restaurant, Happy Face Pizza, have re-opened their doors. The restaurant serves mouth-watering authentic pizzas (gluten-free and vegan options are available).

Happy Face Pizza is a great addition to the local retailers which include Spruce and Larch cafe, Karma Bread Bakery, Cricklewood Coffee Roasters and Gussy's Ice Cream Parlour.
