Summer fun at Brent Cross Town, take a look at what's coming up

Brent Cross Town brings an exciting mix of activities, events and programmes taking place over the summer, and you're invited to join. First up is the annual Summer Festival at Claremont Park on Friday 10 July, from 12pm to 6pm. The festival will feature food stalls, live music, family-friendly entertainment and activities for all ages, bringing together local schools, families and residents for an afternoon of fun in the park.

Summer in the Park programme returns from Saturday 25 July with a packed lineup of free sport, wellbeing, play and creative activities for all ages, including competitive sports challenges, The Play
